

Workshops 2006

Sunday 17th September

Lesley Burr - Landscapes & the Natural World in Mixed Media

Landscapes and the natural world have been a long running source of inspiration for Lesley's work. She will introduce working in mixed media, discussing approaches to recording landscape. Bring photos and sketches to work from. There will be a demonstration on using and handling mixed materials with an emphasis on enjoying using colour. Some drawing experience will be an advantage.

Saturday 7th and Sunday 8th October

Jennifer Alexander - Felt Making: "An Infusion of Fibres"

A Felt Making Workshop capturing aspects of Arran in its Autumn splendour. The course offers the opportunity to explore this ancient craft and delight in the endless possibilities of a "fusion of fibres". Suitable for all levels. There will be a small charge of £5 per person for materials.

Saturday 11th and Saturday 25th November

Simon Thorborn - An Introduction to Raku

An opportunity to make, glaze and fire a RAKU pot. Bring an overall. Note the gap of 2 weeks to allow the clay to dry before glazing and firing.

Saturday 2nd December

Bob Lees - Construction, Composition and Tonal Values (Any Medium)

A return visit from Bob after a very successful workshop in January. This time Bob will discuss construction, composition and tonal values in picture making. Medium of your own choice - what you feel most comfortable using.

Could be Landscape or your choice. Suitable for all abilities.
